Forecast for Thursday 01 Jun 2023

Weather: Rather extensive low cloud covering the park early morning, although the highest summits could possibly remain above the cloud at times. Cloud gradually breaking and lifting through the morning, perhaps quicker than on Wednesday, to leave a fine day with plenty of prolonged warm sunshine. Remaining dry with clear skies into the late evening.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 60% in the east at first, 80% in west, becoming greater than 100% in all areas from mid-late morning.

Low cloud and visibility: Low cloud, mainly on eastern slopes first thing with bases around 400-500m, soon lifting and breaking to above the summits by mid-morning, though some tops above 700m remaining above the cloud. Poor visibility initially in lower cloud, however soon rising to very good once dissipated.
